pieces and personal favorites. Happily, Chekhov's stories illuminate one another in any combination, not to mention the light they shed on the complexity of human relations and the wonders of life in the world. Note that Chekhov's keenest insights come in understated forms, and the stories especially reward quiet focus and sustained attention.

Basically the idea was to write an original story using science fiction technologies that could be used for space travel, exploration and settlement. Technology was to be seen as both the inspiration for the story and the focus of its realisation. A maximum length of not more than 2500 words was requested and the story had to be written in English.
