The Education Quality and Accountability Office (EQAO) is an arm's-length crown agency of the Government of Ontario in Canada. It was legislated into creation in 1996 in response to recommendations made by the Royal Commission on Learning in February 1995.. EQAO is governed by a board of directors appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. The chair of the board is currently Dave Cooke.

Inquiry-based learning (also enquiry-based learning in British English) is a form of active learning that starts by posing questions, problems or scenarios rather than simply presenting established facts or portraying a smooth path to knowledge. The process is often assisted by a facilitator. Inquirers will identify and research issues and questions to develop their knowledge or solutions.
