A gifted fifth grader received this advice on his report card: "You could work on ways to exhibit patience for others who don't work at your same fast pace. Also be aware that you don't overstep boundaries by helping people when they are trying to discover something on their own." Thanks to the parents of [!]

Why School's Not Fair to Gifted Kids - Gifted Guru

Intellectual giftedness is an intellectual ability significantly higher than average. It is a characteristic of children, variously defined, that motivates differences in school programming. It is thought to persist as a trait into adult life, with various consequences studied in longitudinal studies of giftedness over the last century.

Intelligence To be intelligent you first have to know what being Intelligent is. And you also have to know what being ignorant is. Ignorant is just another word for "Not knowing". But not knowing is not always obvious or clearly understood. That's because learning is not fully understood. The more you learn the more you should realize what you didn't know.
