helpful division I find distinguishes between three different types of wisdom that run through all five previously mentioned books: 1) Village wisdom/folk wisdom is characterized by short, pithy statements, examples drawn from nature, framed as instruction from parents to their children. 2) Royal wisdom comes from one of the Israelite capitals.

The Interpretation of Wisdom Literature of the Bible, Part

Wisdom is grounded in social structures, such as the family, the "schools" of the wise elders, or the king and the royal court. 4. Wisdom perspectives do not demand radical change, for example in dealing with social problems.

The Character of Wisdom: An Introduction to OT Wisdom

Given this text's association with King Alfred, this article locates the tale within the broader context of Alfredian writing on the morality of rule and, in particular, royal wisdom. Rather than simply endorsing the loyalty of fighting men to their lord, the tale also warns of the dangers of royal folly and the consequences of unrighteous rule.
