I am loving Ruth's character and relationship with Nelson (like Norfolk's answer to Kathy Reichs's Tempe Brennan and Andrew Ryan), and am looking forward to starting the third book in the series. review 2: Another reviewer called the book "spooky and creepy." It is that but Ruth Galloway is no Gothic heroine, shivering and shaking.

5 big stars for The Janus Stone by Elly Griffiths i loved the way the author takes you on a journey about the life of a Forensic expert & the detail that goes with the story. In the 2nd instalment Ruth investigates a body of a little girl who is found dead in old house what makes this more bizarre is the little girl is missing a head.
